

THE WEST END DAY SCHOOL PARENTS' ASSOCIATION

Invites you to attend a lecture
by Greg Cangiano

Working with an Attorney to Obtain Services for Your Child with Special Needs

Thursday, April 26, 2012

from 6:30 – 8:30 PM

The West End Day School Auditorium

255 West 71st Street

Fee at door: $20.00 cash or check

Greg Cangiano, attorney with Regina Skyer & Associates, one of the city's leading special education law firms, will discuss how to work effectively with an attorney to obtain services for your child. He will cover when to consult a lawyer, considerations when finding a good match, and how and when to communicate throughout the process. He will also describe the CSE process, placement process, and parents' due process rights. Please join us for this informative talk with plenty of time for questions.

Greg Cangiano's work with special needs children led him to pursue a career in children's advocacy. He started to work with Regina Skyer while still in college and then attended the Jacob Fuchsberg School of Law at Touro College, where he graduated with honors. He has been working in special education law for over 10 years.

Please RSVP to events@westenddayschool.org by Friday, April 20, 2012.

West End Day School does not endorse the sum and substance of the presentation or any statements made during the lecture.